Day 1 – A Call to Humble Ourselves

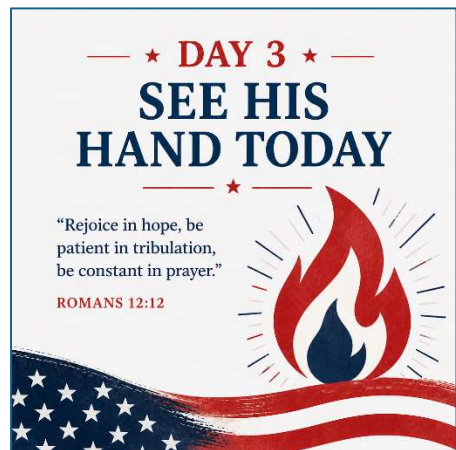

Father, we come before You in humility. You are God over this nation—yesterday, today, and forever. Your Word declares that if Your people humble themselves, pray, seek Your face, and turn from their ways—You will hear, forgive, and heal the land.

So we come. We humble ourselves before You and turn our hearts back to You. We ask for forgiveness where we have drifted, and we invite You to restore what has been lost. Lord, begin with us. Touch our hearts, our homes, our families. Raise up leaders who honor You and walk in truth. Let Your Spirit move across this nation—from city to city, from generation to generation. As we step into this 250th year, we declare: America shall stand as One Nation Under God. Let this be a moment of true rededication— not only in word, but in spirit and truth Heal our land. Restore Your people. Be glorified in America again. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

From the National Mall to the pathways of the Garden... May our nation return to the Lord. Father, we honor You as the God of our history and our future. Thank You for Your faithfulness to this nation—for every miracle, every answered prayer, every moment of protection and provision. We remember Your hand in times of war, crisis, and uncertainty. Just as stones of remembrance mark Your goodness, we declare that You have been our help. Stir gratitude in our hearts again. Let remembrance awaken reverence, and reverence lead us back to You. We call upon You in this hour—deliver, restore, and be glorified in America once again. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

Day 3 – See His Hand Today

Lord, open our eyes to see what You are doing in our nation today. Remove discouragement and restore vision. God is still moving—His miracles are not behind us. From the National Mall to the pathways of the Garden...

May our nation return to the Lord.

Let hope rise again across America. Reveal Your works in families, churches, cities, and leaders. We declare that You are still healing, restoring, and drawing hearts back to You.
